COVID-19 Resources

Baseball Victoria continues to closely monitor the COVID-19 pandemic and the current shutdown of all baseball activity through Sunday, 31 May 2020. Any further updates and developments will be shared accordingly. We hope all of our members are staying healthy and safe, and we look forward to returning to baseball when it's appropriate to do so.

As a reminder, Major League Baseball (MLB) has implemented a shutdown of all scouting activities. Please click HERE for an updated memo on what activities can and cannot be undertaken by scouts associated with MLB clubs.

We understand this is a time of great change and uncertainty for many of our members, and we will continue to update a page with relevant information for sporting bodies, associations, clubs and members. Please click HERE to view our COVID-19 General Government Information Hub.

VSBL Promotion/Relegation

Baseball Victoria has completed a review of promotion/relegation following the 2019/20 VSBL season and confirmed the clubs that will be moving to new divisions in accordance with the criteria for promotion/relegation.

In VSBL Division 3, champion Ormond Glenhuntly has been promoted to Division 2 and minor premier Springvale will remain in Division 3 as the club is ineligible for promotion.

In VSBL Division 2, champion Malvern has been promoted to Division 1 and minor premier Werribee will remain in Division 2 as the club is ineligible for promotion. In the first relegation spot, Bonbeach has been relegated to Division 3. St Kilda finished in the second relegation spot but will remain in Division 2 as Springvale is ineligible for promotion.

In VSBL Division 1, Blackburn is the champion and Sunshine is the minor premier, while Newport finished in the first relegation spot and will be relegated to Division 2. Melbourne finished in the second relegation spot but will remain in Division 1 as Werribee is ineligible for promotion.

Individual clubs may provide further detail on promotion/relegation if they so wish. If you have any queries on the promotion/relegation of specific clubs, please contact your club.
