Research Lower Plenty – Locklier Family Game

Research Lower Plenty Baseball Club celebrated a wonderful occasion this past Saturday as six players from the Locklier family played in the same game.

The RLP Thirds lineup included former Victorian and Australian representative Peter (Jex) Locklier on the mound, playing alongside his sons Scott behind the plate and Adam at first base. Peter's grandsons were also in the field, with Zachary at second base, James in left, and Ashton in right.

Peter's daughter Rachel Tigani (née Locklier) scored and Adam's son Archie served as batboy in a special game for a big baseball family. It all started with Peter's father Walter Locklier, who was instrumental in the early days of Victorian baseball. A crowd of 20 other family members joined in the fun and showed their support on Saturday.

Congrats to this multi-generational family who continue to come together with their love of the game!

Sporting Schools Term 3 Grants

Sporting Schools Grants are now open for Term 3 with updated Aussie T-Ball and Baseball5 sessions making it easier to bring baseball to more schools.
