

2023 Winter Club Coach Vacancy

The Dingley Baseball Club, a progressive and family-oriented Club is seeking an expression of interest for an experienced Accredited Club Coach with passion and drive to lead our club in the 2023 winter season.

The successful applicant will be required to fulfill duties as Club Coach that include the following:

- Develop, manage, and oversee all the Senior training sessions, as well as manage the 'A' team on game day. This would include working with a coaching panel to coordinate team selection
- Create an effective learning environment for our junior players by providing positive assistance and support for our juniors and senior coaching staff
- Demonstrate professionalism and appropriate demeanour in all aspects of Club life, and in dealings with players, parents, and supporters
- Attend monthly in-season committee meetings to report on the senior program and any associated opportunities
- To participate and encourage senior participation in club social and fund-raising activities.

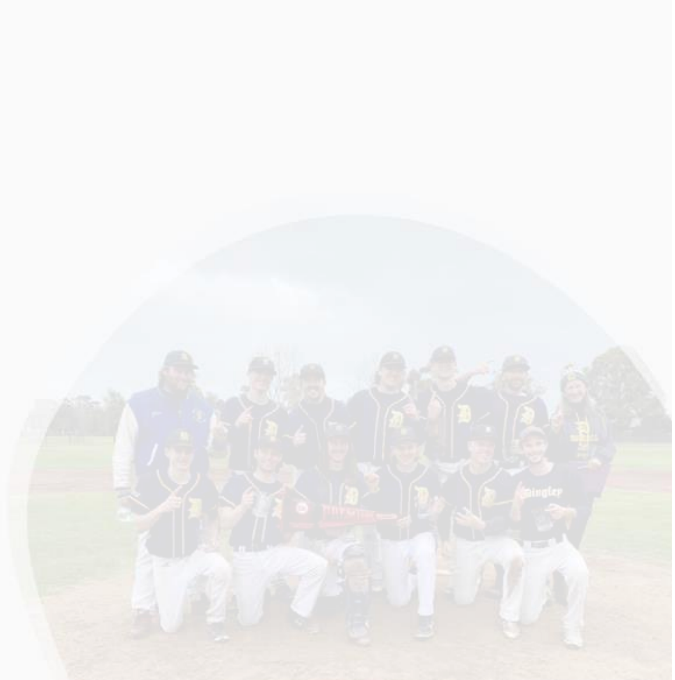

The successful applicant must possess the following qualities and attributes:

- Strong management, leadership, and interpersonal skills on and off the field
- Ability to plan and implement appropriate and well-managed training programs for the Senior Teams
- Ability to work and communicate with our Junior Coaches/players and Committee
- Lead by example of what is required to be a club member and team player on and off the field

Expressions of interest are now invited if you feel you have the necessary skills and attributes, we encourage you to apply. The email should detail your key coaching achievements, the knowledge, skills, and values that you would bring to the position, and importantly your plan for the playing success of the club.

Applications close December 31st, 2022. Applicants will be shortlisted from emails received and will be interviewed by a subcommittee panel. Remuneration and conditions of appointment are negotiable. All applications should be forwarded to secretary@dingleybaseball.com.au

All applications will be treated in the strictest confidence.
