

SAMPLE COACH CODE OF CONDUCT

1. Be reasonable in your demands of players.
2. Always think safety first.
3. Know the rules of baseball and ensure that your players always play within those rules. Develop team respect for opponents and officials.
4. Do not ridicule players or officials and do not allow your players to do so.
5. Ensure any discussions with umpires are kept below the level of argument.
6. Discipline should be fair and consistent.
7. Do not tolerate players abusing equipment or acting contrary to reasonable behaviour. Act first, before the umpire or official takes action.
8. Keep yourself informed of sound coaching principles and seek specialist advice when required. Endeavour to make the learning process both pleasurable and informative.
9. Be generous with your praise when deserved and set a good example.
10. Foul language of any sort should not be tolerated.
11. Treat all players fairly and show no bias.
