2025 Victorian Sport Awards: Total Teams Wellbeing Project

Baseball Victoria is excited to announce that the Total Teams Wellbeing Project with Melbourne Winter Baseball League (MWBL) has been named a finalist for the VicHealth Sport and Active Recreation Initiative of the Year Award at the 2025 Vicsport Awards.

This program, led by Edwina Ricci of Total Teams and piloted by MWBL club volunteers, focused on sharing strengths, challenges, and inclusive practices to ensure baseball is welcoming to all. With each of the league's 31 clubs participating and prioritising safeguarding, volunteers have newfound knowledge and tools to ensure baseball is always safe, supportive and inclusive.

Winners will be announced when the VSAs are held at the Melbourne Cricket Ground on Wednesday 13 May 2026. Read the full release HERE.

AWC and AYWC Recap

With the Australian Women's Championships now concluded for another year, we are very excited to see our Victorian women bring home the title of National Champions!

Victoria also saw the Golden Arm and Golden Glove awards going to Narumi Kametani and Emi Saiki respectively.

In the Australian Youth Women's Championship, Victoria placed fourth overall. However, they came back claiming their first Pool Play Youth Victory since 2023.

After a tough start to the tournament with no wins, the Victorian girls came back with a fight in the consolation match against Queensland, defeating them 10-6.

School Sport Tournament Kicks Off in South Australia

The School Sport Australia (SSA) 18 Years & Under Mixed Baseball Championship is currently underway in South Australia.

Victoria opened the tournament with a 9-0 win over ACT and continued through the tournament with wins over Western Australia and South Australia.

Currently third in the standings with a 3-2 tally, Victoria take on Western Australia and New South Wales on Friday for Day 5 of the tournament.

Club News: 2025–26 Volunteer Grants Round

Volunteer Grants from the Australian Government support the work of community organisations that rely on volunteers by removing barriers to volunteering and promoting awareness of volunteering opportunities. Grants of between $1,000 and $5,000 will be available to assist eligible not-for-profit community organisations that rely on volunteers.

Grants can be used to purchase communication or insurance items and/or purchase items for the main purpose of supporting volunteer cohorts and volunteer-run activities as specified in the Grant Opportunity Guidelines.

Projects may include communication tools, insurance, equipment, training, and other resources that help organisations support volunteers and improve children's development and wellbeing. For more information, contact your local Federal MP for details on submitting an expression of interest, which will open in May 2026.
